How to Add an Ad

Rotary has an online spot at www.thisclose.net with all sorts of information about the fight against polio, including a way to create your own ad. Below, an example from Dan, showing us the way.

Overnight email exchange down under

You may recall that one of the four Rotary stories from Europe (our program back on October 6) had to do with 69 year old Peter Bearsley, trying to raise the final funds for their project in East Timor. email:

“I’m pleased to report the marathon fundraising has gone very well. We haven’t “closed the books” on it yet but we’re very close to our target of $30,000 to complete the USD 235,385 funding. At last count we had received about $26,500 and my friends at Good Shepherd (I’m on the Australia-New Zealand board there) have another fundraiser (a film night) planned for us next month. I’m confident we’ll make the target.

We hope the rest of your trip was at least as pleasant as you had expected. We were pleased with ours. It was a beautiful day for the marathon - certainly for the spectators and the many bands along the way - quite a party atmosphere. I was very under-prepared because of my knee problems but it was OK on the day and I finished in 4:50:13 with recurring cramps from 28km on.

Somehow we forget the pain, don’t we, and my memory of the race is that of a 42km street party - a lot of fun. Makes me want to do another, if I can get the knee right.”

Unseen Angels Update (Nov. 3 program)

Our family worked as Thanksgiving delivery crew (two cars, to five families). Unseen Angels proved to be a well organized effort.
