THEMES

Annual RI: Light Up Rotary
Monthly RI: Fellowship

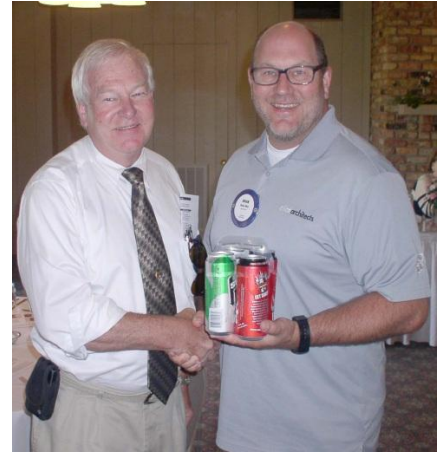

UNSUNG HERO

Jeremy Lilyquist was the winner of the Unsung Hero Award presented at Monday's golf outing. He has been involved with ringing bells for the Salvation Army for several years and was part of the annual 30-hour marathon.

Raffle winner

Denny Lee was the raffle winner last week. He received a prize of exotic beer donated by Brian Hinz. The beer was brewed at Surly Brewing Co. in Minneapolis. Denny said it will go well with the "Rotary cheese grater" he won a couple of weeks earlier!

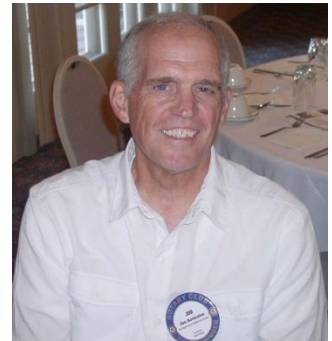

Water project

Chuck Ladd paid a Happy Buck last week to announce that the Daybreak Rotary Club donated $1,500 to the Tanzanian water project. The Noon Club had already donated $3,000 to the project, making the total $4,500. When combined with various Rotary matches, the $4,500 turned into $22,500!

Last week's stand-ins

Isaac took over as Sergeant at Arms, Sonya Jansma stood in as president last week. Scott Wagner is on vacation.

NOON CALENDAR

- Minnesota Twins: August 16
DG Visit: August 27
Board Meeting: September 3

Jim Bankston was the mystery greeter this week. Based on the honor system, Todd Bol was the only Rotarian to pay a dollar. In Todd's defense, he was a bit late for the meeting and wasn't able to make the rounds and shake hands at the various tables. Good job Todd -- Honesty, is the best policy!!

July 30 program

Last week's program featured Jennifer Flanagan (Pictured) and Lynette Weldon of the Lost Creek Ranch located near Beldenville. The ranch serves two purposes -- to be a refuge for horses and use the animals to assist in the development of people with at-risk problems.

The ranch's slogan is "Let no heart or soul, human or equine, fall through the cracks." Lost Creek Ranch is a Non Profit horse rescue that was founded by Lynette Weldon and is run with the help of volunteers under her direction. Flanagan, who is on the board of directors, said the camp rescues, retrains and gives horses a forever home and job working in one of the ranch's programs like Camp Confidence, teaching lessons or taking riders on the trails. "It really comes down to the children we help," said Flanagan. The ranch currently houses 32 horses on about 20 acres. Flanagan said it costs about $366 per day to maintain the horses and programs. They welcome donations.

OUR MISSION Hudson Rotary is a fellowship of engaged members, generous in spirit, committed to improving the world around us.
OUR VISION We are a growing and diverse club of active and involved members. Our meetings offer fun, fellowship, and programs that are informative and inspirational. The ideals of the four-way test are encouraged by open communication among the board of directors, club members and the community. Our leadership structure fosters continuity of club goals. We are dedicated to helping people and non-profit organizations through focused local and international projects. Our club mentors local youth. We support international exchange students and programs. All members are encouraged to contribute to the Rotary Foundation and become Paul Harris Fellows. Above all, our members live Rotary's motto—Service Above Self.
 ■ Is it the TRUTH? ■ Is it FAIR to all concerned? ■ Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS? ■ Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
